Conservative Hiram Lewis, former Army Ranger and a faithful supporter of the American troops risking their lives around the world, ran a spirited campaign to unseat Democratic Senator Robert Byrd of West Virginia.

Donors to the Lewis campaign share his commitment to the troops. They are unashamedly pro-America and anti-terrorist, a refreshing contrast to the wavering Senator Byrd, a longtime Democratic leader who has openly disparaged the service of our soldiers as "unconstitutional." These donors have contributed an average of more than $40 to the effort to replace the aged and uncertain Byrd with a spirited conservative who has proudly served his country and will proudly continue his service.

This list is a "must test" for conservative campaigns and causes, particularly those focused on the War on Terror and supporting the troops engaged in it.
