Kevin Scott challenged one of the left's most enduring and frightening leaders in Senator Ted Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Donors agreed with Scott's concerns about the out-of-touch Kennedy's hysterical diatribes against the United States military, his hypocrisy in raising taxes while sheltering his family's own fortune from the IRS, and his elitist judgments against President Bush's judicial nominees.

Kevin Scott and his supporters were able to shed renewed and much-needed light on the ultra-liberal Kennedy's extreme and flawed ideology.
