John Spencer, former Mayor of Yonkers, New York, took on the challenge of facing Senator Hillary Clinton and attempting to derail her larger ambitions in pursuit of the presidency in 2008.

Spencer is a proven conservative who drew wide support from New York's conservative leaders, as well as from concerned citizens across the country eager to do their part to defeat Hillary Clinton. Donors responded well to Spencer's pro-life, pro-marriage, pro-America positions, all of which stand in stark contrast to the views expressed and acted upon by his opponent.

Conservative mailers, particularly those working to rein in the Clintons, will find these donors responsive and generous.
