True Americans believe in the traditional and patriotic duty to support our troops and win over the communities in both Afghanistan and Iraq by building trust. These conservative donors continue to give to support a strong national defense and veteran's causes. They should also be considered for like Republican causes including: border security, immigration control, pro military and pro law enforcement causes.

TNY believes now, it is our time to mobilize and help our troops succeed. Deliver the resources the troops need to win over the local people in Iraq and Afghanistan. Our troops are well equipped to engage in combat, but need the American people to equip them to engage communities. Soldiers and Marines have proven that providing tailored responses to local needs--whether medical supplies, water filtration systems or enough sports equipment to start a soccer league--builds trust and makes the people more willing to stand up, so our troops can stand down and come home--victorious
