Donors to Troops Need You understand that there troops can stand down and come home- is a critical need for supplies for our men and -victorious. women in uniform. These are patriotic, religious Americans who believe the directive to “live thy neighbor,” and do this by donating to active duty soldiers. These conservative donors are also interested in issues of national security and support a stronger border control, veteran affairs, and rights of law enforcement.

Troops Need You is an organization that builds bonds of trust between solders and Iraqi and Afghan civilians. Some of these soldiers are responsible for providing medical aid, and they rely on TNY to provide supplies. This is a critical mission and the stakes are very high on both sides.

TNY believes now, it is our time to mobilize and help our troops succeed. Deliver the resources the troops need to win over the local people in Iraq and Afghanistan. Our troops are well equipped to engage in combat, but need the American people to equip them to engage communities. Soldiers and Marines have proven that providing tailored responses to local needs--whether medical supplies, water filtration systems or enough sports equipment to start a soccer league--builds trust and makes the people more willing to stand up, so our
