The 2004 presidential election brought together veterans and other conscientious Americans who could not accept the prospect of John Kerry as Commander-in-Chief of America's armed forces. This organization's donors are pro-military conservatives who were unwilling to overlook Senator Kerry's radical anti-war and anti-U.S. antics during and after the Vietnam War, falsified stories of heroics, and shamelessly liberal and anti-defense voting record in the Senate. They stand ready always to work against those hypocrites who, like John Kerry, would attempt to capitalize on a pretense of sharing the patriotism which they have so often disparaged.
