Donors to Young America's Foundation recognize that the youth of American are the future. These donors are active and essential to the organization's continued ability to host conferences, speakers, such as Ann Coulter, Oliver North, and Margaret Thatcher, and more for college-aged students. These are solid, wealthy conservative voters who look up to Ronald Reagan as the ideal of conservatism and the GOP in America. They value free-market economics and lower taxes, and lower taxes. They feel proud in knowing that they are helping to mold the next generation of political leaders.

Young America's Foundation is committed to ensuring that increasing numbers of young Americans understand, and are inspired by, the ideas of individual freedom, a strong national defense, free enterprise, and traditional values.
